Dear NFN,

Surely there can be no sane person who supports nuclear power after the horrific accident at Chernobyl. Not only is the Ukraine virtually uninhabitable, but the disastrous effects have swept all over Europe.

Much is made about the slowness and reluctance of the Communist Authorities in giving the full facts, or originally any at all about the disaster, but did you know that the Capitalist Authorities in our own country are guilty of several similar cover-ups all about the same time as Chernobyl.

A recent Television documentary exposed a Government and Nuclear Industry cover–up relating to an accident at the nuclear plant at Dounreay, on the Scottish Coast near the Orkneys. Eventually when faced with the evidence collected, the authorities admitted that it had happened but tried to play it down. Scientists described the accident as potentially worse than Chernobyl.

About the same time there was a fire in the nuclear plant at Sizewell in Suffolk. The fire had been deliberately started by a member of the public who had easily gained access to the plant.

The authorities still plan to build a second nuclear plant at Sizewell & a re-processing plant – another Windscale (Sellafield) – at Dounreay!

Also during May there was a huge fire at Porton Down which needed 25 fire fighters to control the blaze. Porton Down is where these evil men store and produce chemical weapons which are supposed to be banned throughout

PETERBOROUGH SUCCESS!

A NEWLY reformed NF unit in Peterborough has already hit the headlines after only a few weeks in existence. The new unit spearheaded by Graham Gillmore and Tony Hilton are determined to hit Peterborough with a bang. Recently, the Peterborough NF were given a 5 minute slot on the Anglia TV news which covers millions of people throughout East Anglia.

Most of the 5 minutes were taken up with an interview with Tony, who put himself and the NF over very well. Peterborough was one of the first 'experimental' multi-racial towns and is beset with racial violence especially within the schools. When asked about this Tony told millions of viewers that it was right that people should feel pride and want to preserve their own race, but the NF didn't want racial violence to be the result of the natural anger caused by forced race-mixing. Tony went on to add that people should organise politically and turn their wrath towards the politicians and the system that brought Coloured Immigrants to our country.

Before recently moving to Peterborough, readers will remember that it was Tony who founded and Chaired the highly successful Baylis Road Action Group (BRAG) featured in our last Community Action Feature. BRAG is a Tenants Association in the Waterloo area of Lambeth, South London which was formed to look after the interests of the white residents of the area.

Graham Gillmore

The other Tenants Associations in Lambeth are Red or Immigrant dominated, and although it is well known that BRAG was set up by the NF, and although it has been heavily smeared by the media and illegal Red leaflets, the white residents of Waterloo have flocked to join BRAG.

Readers will be pleased to know that although Tony is now in Peterborough, BRAG is still going strong and looking after and fighting for our people.

Another NF success story!

Liverpool Victory....

A PLANNED 'Defend Free Speech' meeting in Liverpool went ahead as planned on Saturday June 7th, despite a public declaration from Reds and Immigrants that "the NF will be smashed off the streets". The Reds had promised a violent mass mobilisation of thousands to stop the local NF open air meeting, but in the event only 200 odd counter-demonstrators turned out and they decided not to confront

ARREST AND INTERROGATION

This special NF News feature article is published to help the growing number of decent people who find themselves in conflict with a corrupt and tyrannical State. The National Front believes that just and fair laws should be obeyed, but unjust legislation and attacks on our traditional freedoms must be fought and destroyed. As Nationalists we are loyal to the British Nation. Since the British State is undermining our national sovereignty and identity, it is inevitable that British patriots will increasingly find themselves in conflict with the State. We hope that the information contained in this article will help every member of our nation arrested for defending their community or standing up for their rights.

THERE was a time when British Citizens believed that arrest and interrogation by the police was something that only happened to criminals. Most law-abiding Britons thought that such people were only getting what they deserved, and it certainly never occurred to us that we might find ourselves on the receiving end of such treatment by the State.

But more and more ordinary people are finding out the hard way that this has changed. And new laws being passed this summer make it even more likely that YOU will one day be arrested and questioned by the Police. Not because you are a criminal; but because you are involved in a dispute at your workplace, in a row at the dole office; in a protest by a local community group; in a racial confrontation; because you take part in an anti-mugging patrol on your estate; because you are an Ulster Loyalist; or just because you are young and have nothing to do except stand on a street corner with your mates.

POLITICAL POLICE

Maggie Thatcher's Union laws; Public Order Act; Police and Criminal Evidence Act; and the Race Laws all combine to make this a country where economic discontent, social criticism and political activity outside the three Establishment parties, make you a "subversive" in the eyes of an increasingly political police force.

The new laws make literally millions of us into targets for unjust police activity. So it is essential

Even under the draconian Prevention of Terrorism Act, you have an unconditional right to unrestricted access to a solicitor after 48 hours in custody. Make sure that your family know to contact the solicitor and warn him at once,and also to inform your friends and political colleagues.

While you are washing and dressing, use the short time allowed to you to gain control of yourself. Breathe deeply and rythmically. Try to relax. Remember that whatever they say they probably have no evidence against you. The only thing that guarantees conviction is your own statement. That's why they are arresting you-to make you talk to the Special Branch(secret political police) or other plainclothes detectives. Whether or not you are charged depends on you – if you talk, you probably will be: if you stay silent you will go free after a few days at most. You are dealing with highly trained professionals, you can't talk them into releasing you, you are far more likely to talk your way into prison.

THE STATION

When you arrive at the police station or holding centre, you will be put in an interrogation room. You will be ordered to empty your pockets, surrender tie, laces, belt etc. and hand them over until you leave. Do so quietly and without fuss.

Also at this early stage you may be taken to see a police doctor. Accept the medical but only give verbal permission for it, do not sign for it. You can refuse to be photo-

The interviews, usually conducted by teams of two detectives, vary in length and intensity. At times the detectives will question you about specific matters or people, but often they'll appear to be talking for talk's sake. They'll tell you that they only want a few details "and then you'll go free". It's a lie – keep silent. They'll claim that your mate has said you did it. It's a lie – say nothing. They may even bring in a statement supposedly made by some-one you know which implicates you in illegal activity. Don't make one. Stay silent.

They'll tell you that your mother has had a heart attack because of the shock
It's a lie – say nothing.

ANGRY

Then they'll talk about the weather or your football team. It's a trick to get you talking – stay silent. They'll say you're queer or if you're a woman they'll call you a whore: and they'll give a list of people you are supposed to have slept with. They're trying to make you atart talking with an angry denial – say nothing. Women may also be threatened with strip searches and suffer mild sexual assault. Complain to the duty officer but say nothing else. These "men" aren't just sadistic pigs, they're also highly trained interrogators trying to break you and make you talk. Don't let them win –stay silent.

One may leave the room because

If you are politically involved, they'll ask you to condemn or justify the actions of extremists in your cause. Say nothing. If you're young or only a rank-and-file activist they'll tell you that the leaders of your cause are corrupt. "They get all the money, but keep themselves out of the firing line by using idealistic people like you as cannon-fodder". Then they'll plead with you to wake up and do yourself a favour. "For your own sake, let us help you out of this mess". More tricks – stay silent.

They may send in a quietly spoken "respectable" figure who'll tell you how he sympathises with your aims and ideals but believes that you should find a more reasonable way to get your case across. "Look son, we don't like wogs/Reds/pit closures/Yank bases/vivisectionists/muggers any nore than you do but we've got to enforce the law". It all sounds very reasonable. You start to listen and relax and get drawn into conversation........and they've got you. Don't fall for it. They're all working for the State; they're all hostile – say nothing.

They'll tell you that you are about to be charged with an offence, but that if you confess to a less serious one they'll drop the worst charge. "We'll have a word with the judge and you'll only get a suspended sentence instead of three years." Britain's prisons are full of people who fell for that one. The police are there to send you down, not to do you favours – stay silent.

They'll accuse you of all sorts of crimes, but remember, all they

INFORMER

When all else fails, they'll try to recruit you as an informer. They'll offer immunity form prosecution, money and the chance to live in peace. All they want in return is for you to "confirm" a few minor details of things we already know." But once you tell them the slightest thing you are at their mercy forever. Even if you then refuse to say any more, all they have to do is to threaten to make it known that you started to "squeal" and you'll be forced to co-operate with them in order to stop them exposing you.

No amount of informing can save you if they have got evidence against you. All it will do is to ruin the lives of others and turn you into a "grass". Rejected by former friends, ostracised from your community and hunted by the comrades of people you betrayed, the life of the "grass" is lonely and miserable. The suicide rate among informers reflects this fact, for it is nearly as high as the number who meet with unfortunate accidents months or even years after their release. Don't put yourself in this terrible position. Stay silent.

Don't believe anything you're told or shown. In Ulster, Special Branch have been known to get a well-known daily newspaper to print just one copy of a special front page edition to show you, so that you see a story about a member of your family being killed in an accident. Then they promise to get you home straight away – after you've signed a short statement ! These people will go to receiving end of such treatment by the State.

But more and more ordinary people are finding out the hard way that this has changed. And new laws being passed this summer make it even more likely that YOU will one day be arrested and questioned by the Police. Not because you are a criminal; but because you are involved in a dispute at your workplace, in a row at the dole office; in a protest by a local community group; in a racial confrontation; because you take part in an anti-mugging patrol on your estate; because you are an Ulster Loyalist; or just because you are young and have nothing to do except stand on a street corner with your mates.

The new laws make literally millions of us into targets for unjust police activity. So it is essential that EVERY Briton knows what goes on in a police raid, an arrest and in questioning. It is vital that YOU know your rights, so that even if you are arrested, you can finally walk out of custody and say to yourself: "I beat them, and I'm still free." There is only one thing you can do once arrested to make sure of this "happy ending" - stay silent. Silent from the moment of arrest until the moment of release.

ARREST AND SEARCHES

You may well be arrested on the street or on a picket line or demonstration, but since the most frightening form of arrest is in a police raid on your own home, it is useful to consider this worst possibility.

Wherever you are picked up, the arrest is deliberately designed to be traumatic and cause the maximum level of worry and fear, in order to soften you up for later interrogation To be woken up by as many as a dozen uniformed men (armed if you live in Ulster, and often wielding sledge-hammers even on the

Also at this early stage you may be taken to see a police doctor. Accept the medical but only give verbal permission for it, do not sign for it. You can refuse to be photographed or finger-printed.The officer will then have to get a court order to fingerprint you. If he tries to fingerprint without a court order refuse to co-operate and let the officer physically lift your hands and make the prints for you.The police have no right to photograph you. Cover your face if they try to - turn your head away. Photographs could be shown to 'witnesses' in order to enable them to identify you falsely.

Your cell will be a small windowless room with a spy-hole in the door, chair and bed chained to the wall and a light that is only dimmed at night. A uniformed officer will lock you up and stays on duty in the corridor outside. This is the only person you should speak to while "inside." And the only time you should speak to him is to ask to use the toilet and to see a solicitor. Do not enter into any other conversation. Assume that everyone you see is a police officer. Even a fellow prisoner put into your cell is likely to be an informer, so speak to nobody.

free". It's a lie – keep silent. They'll claim that your mate has said you did it. It's a lie – say nothing. They may even bring in a statement supposedly made by some-one you know which implicates you in illegal activity. Don't make one. Stay silent.

Don't let them win –stay silent.

One may leave the room because of "a telephone call" or under another such pretext. Don't be fooled into thinking the interrogation is over. It's not. It's just a ruse to "lighten the atmosphere" and get you to talk to his colleague while he's out of the room, When he returns he may well ask "What did he say ?". Don't say anything.

They'll slap you around the head and even knee you in the groin.So what? You can get worse in a game of football. Complain to the uniformed duty officer, but say nothing . They'll laugh at you and tell you that you can't go to jail for answering harmless questions.Don't believe it, plenty of people have– stay silent. They may order you to do exercises or to stand up and sit down fifty times. Don't do it. Make them move you. In the unlikely event of a really viscious assault, try to roll in a ball into the corner. And complain to the duty officer and doctor at the first opportunity.

Rather than outright violence, the pair of detectives are more likely to use the old Mutt 'n' Jeff routine. One "hard" one screams using idealistic people like you as cannon-fodder". Then they'll plead with you to wake up and do yourself a favour. "For your own sake, let us help you out of this mess". More tricks – stay silent.

They'll accuse you of all sorts of crimes, but remember, all they want to do is to make you start denying them, because once you start talking they've got you. If they really had any evidence against you they'd charge you anyway, so ignore them and say nothing.

TRICKS

If one trick doesn't work, they'll try another. They'll paint a picture of your life as it could become. Constant harrassment for you and your family. More raids on your home. Whenever you drive somewhere you'll be stopped and searched and booked for a minor offence. Even if this was true it would be better than being locked away, so stay silent.

They may threaten to arrest another member of your family or even say that they already have done so and that your younger brother, sister or whoever has made a statement taking the blame for something the police say you have done. Ignore it. It's probably just another trick, but even if it's true you must realise that from the moment you are arrested you are

But once you tell them the slightest thing you are at their mercy forever. Even if you then refuse to say any more, all they have to do is to threaten to make it known that you started to "squeal" and you'll be forced to co-operate with them in order to stop them exposing you.

Believe nothing they tell you, and whatever it is , say nothing in reply.

You'll probably be told that it is an offence to refuse to answer questions, or that refusal to answer is an admission of guilt. Yet more lies. Once you have told them your name and address (and, under the P.T.A. where you are going and where you've just come from) you don't have to say another word. If you do, you've only got yourself to blame if you end up getting convicted on your own statement.

COMING HOME

When your silence has broken them, they'll have to let you go. This will be after a maximum of seven days under present law (Section 11 of the Prevention of Terrorism Act). Just before your release you will be examined by a doctor. If you have any complaints about your treatment state them before you sign the doctor's form. The uniformed guard will also ask you to sign a form saying that you have not been mistreated while in

Make sure that they have a valid search warrant and try to ensure that they are accompanied as they search each room. This reduces the chances of them "planting" incriminating "evidence". As they ransack drawers, files and wardrobes, the rooms will rapidly look as though your visitors are burglars rather than members of the thin blue line. This is deliberate. The aim is to intimidate not only you, but also your family as they know that concern for loved ones can be the weak point of even the strongest characters.

You should be told what legislation you are being arrested under. Ask immediately for the person in charge of the arrest and, in front of your family, establish the name of the solicitor whom you will ask to see as quickly as permitted. You should normally be allowed to talk to your solicitor... although under the Police and Criminal Evidence Act (PACE) this right may be denied for a short period if it is felt that it would interfere with the investigation.

verbal permission for it, do not sign for it. You can refuse to be photographed or finger-printed. The officer will then have to get a court order to fingerprint you. If he tries to fingerprint without a court order refuse to co-operate and let the officer physically lift your hands and make the prints for you. The police have no right to photograph you. Cover your face if they try to - turn your head away. Photographs could be shown to 'witnesses' in order to enable them to identify you falsely.

Your cell will be a small windowless room with a spy-hole in the door, chair and bed chained to the wall and a light that is only dimmed at night. A uniformed officer will lock you up and stays on duty in the corridor outside. This is the only person you should speak to while "inside." And the only time you should speak to him is to ask to use the toilet and to see a solicitor. Do not enter into any other conversation. Assume that everyone you see is a police officer. Even a fellow prisoner put into your cell is likely to be an informer, so speak to nobody.

QUESTIONING

The sole purpose of your arrest is to make you talk, so they'll use every trick in the book to get you to do so. The interrogation sessions may begin at 9.00 a.m. and go on with only two meal breaks until 11.30 p.m. The aim is to bully, frighten, anger or bore you into talking – don't let them win. Give your name and address, you don't have to tell them anything else. You should say nothing except for two simple sentences: "I am innocent. I know nothing about any crime or terrorist act, and I know of no-one involved in any crime or terrorist acts." Learn this off by heart.

Once you've said that ignore anything anyone says to you. Whatever questions they ask or threats or allegations they make from this moment on, either say nothing at all or simply reply : "I have no further comment to make." It doesn't matter how often you say it, it's your passport to freedom, use it all the time, and say nothing else.

One may leave the room because of "a telephone call" or under another such pretext. Don't be fooled into thinking the interrogation is over. It's not. It's just a ruse to "lighten the atmosphere" and get you to talk to his colleague while he's out of the room, When he returns he may well ask "What did he say ?". Don't say anything.

They'll slap you around the head and even knee you in the groin. So what? You can get worse in a game of football. Complain to the uniformed duty officer, but say nothing . They'll laugh at you and tell you that you can't go to jail for answering harmless questions. Don't believe it, plenty of people have – stay silent. They may order you to do exercises or to stand up and sit down fifty times. Don't do it. Make them move you. In the unlikely event of a really viscious assault, try to roll in a ball into the corner. And complain to the duty officer and doctor at the first opportunity.

Rather than outright violence, the pair of detectives are more likely to use the old Mutt 'n' Jeff routine. One "hard" one screams and abuses you. The other "soft" one offers you a cigarette or a cup of tea (refuse any such gestures) and asks you as a friend to give him a few details before his "evil tempered" colleague comes back "and hammers you".

You may even hear screams from the neighbouring cell and be told that "it's your turn next unless you talk". If you fall for tricks like this you deserve everything you get – say nothing.

FILE

They will have a file on you and will flick through it frequently, giving each other knowing looks. They might tell you about your friends or movements, or give you details of your DHSS record. They'll try to give you the impression that they know all about you in order to make you panic. Stay calm. Remember: they only know for sure what you tell them – stay silent.

They'll accuse you of all sorts of crimes, but remember, all they want to do is to make you start denying them, because once you start talking they've got you. If they really had any evidence against you they'd charge you anyway, so ignore them and say nothing.

TRICKS

If one trick doesn't work, they'll try another. They'll paint a picture of your life as it could become. Constant harrassment for you and your family. More raids on your home. Whenever you drive somewhere you'll be stopped and searched and booked for a minor offence. Even if this was true it would be better than being locked away, so stay silent.

They may threaten to arrest another member of your family or even say that they already have done so and that your younger brother, sister or whoever has made a statement taking the blame for something the police say you have done. Ignore it. It's probably just another trick, but even if it's true you must realise that from the moment you are arrested you are powerless to help anyone else. The only thing you can do is to look after yourself by saying nothing and coming out innocent.

They might threaten to "verbal" you. This is when they write down "answers" they make up for you in response to their questions. This is a particularly good reason to stay silent at all times, because even if you only talk about the weather they may be able to note peculiarities of your speech, such as repetitions of certain words or phrases. These peculiarities are then inserted into "your" confession to make it sound as though you really said it. So don't give them anything to work on – stay silent and stay free.

Some readers may be shocked to read what goes on in our police stations, but it is important that you realise that things like this happen all the time, to innocent citizens as well as to real criminals. As long as you understand this and are on your guard and determined to say nothing, there's a very good chance that you'll walk away free when they have let you go.

after you've signed a short statement ! These people will go to incredible lengths to get a conviction and justify their inflated salaries. Believe nothing they tell you, and whatever it is , say nothing in reply.

You'll probably be told that it is an offence to refuse to answer questions, or that refusal to answer is an admission of guilt. Yet more lies. Once you have told them your name and address (and, under the P.T.A. where you are going and where you've just come from) you don't have to say another word. If you do, you've only got yourself to blame if you end up getting convicted on your own statement.

COMING HOME

When your silence has broken them, they'll have to let you go. This will be after a maximum of seven days under present law (Section 11 of the Prevention of Terrorism Act). Just before your release you will be examined by a doctor. If you have any complaints about your treatment state them before you sign the doctor's form. The uniformed guard will also ask you to sign a form saying that you have not been mistreated while in custody. If you have been refuse to sign it. This may lead to a delay in your release, but it will only be temporary. Once released, go straight to your family doctor and talk to your solicitor and NF News sellers about the treatment you received.

Your final action before leaving is to sign for your belongings. Make sure that you get everything back. Now, if you've stayed silent and signed no statement, you can walk to freedom once again.

REMEMBER: Whatever they say or do to you, remain absolutely silent throughout your interrogation. The only right you have while in custody is the right to silence. It is the only right you need to guarantee your release to freedom.

Everything they do to you is designed to make you talk. At times it will become almost unbearably difficult to stay silent, but you must do so. Silence is your only defence, so whatever they say, say nothing!

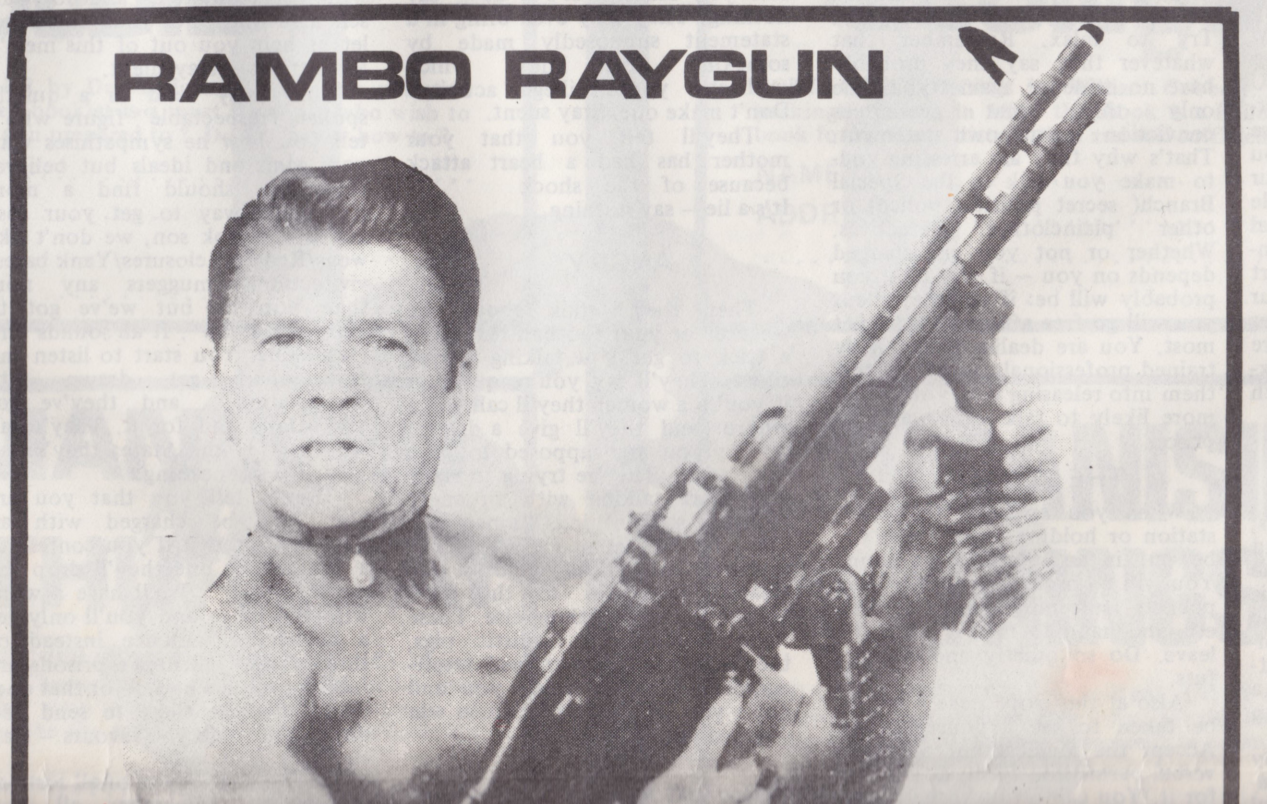
FOREIGN TROOPS OUT YANKS GO HOME

THE LUNATIC reality of the foreign military occupation of the British nations and Europe was brought home to millions after the bombing of Libya by Washington during April . Ever since Labour signed the secret agreement with Wahington in 1947, allowing US bases into this country, Britain has become a giant aircraft carrier for the USA . The same situation exists throughout the nations of western Europe .

Today in the British Isles, there are 103 American military installations. Our land is crammed with occupational bases, conventional & nuclear missiles, nuclear submarines, aircraft and about 30,000 Yank servicemen, many of whom are black which causes extra problems. American servicemen are also exempt from British laws and our Courts have no jurisdiction over them or their bases.

In fact it was recently disclosed that the USAF with Ministry of Defence support, declared a 200 mile air exclusion zone above their base at Upper Heyford in Oxfordshire. Upper Heyford is the home of 3 squadrons of F-111 fighters. These supersonic planes carry nuclear missiles. If British pilots wish to fly within 200 miles of the base, they have to get permission from the Yank authorities. If they don't they could be grounded or possibly even shot down.

For as long as the military occupation of our land continues we will be in the front line of a possible nuclear war that will have nothing to do with us. If the two powers of State Centralism, the USA and USSR, decide to fight it



END THE OCCUPATION !

EUROPE AWAKE

THE whole of Europe is split and divided between foreign military forces of occupation. In western Europe we are pinned beneath the sharp claws of the USA, and in the eastern half of Europe our peoples are chained to the USSR. Germany are 103 American military installations. Our land is crammed with occupational bases, conventional & nuclear missiles, nuclear submarines, aircraft and about 30,000 Yank servicemen, many of whom are black which causes extra problems. American servicemen are also exempt from British laws and our Courts have no jurisdiction over them or their bases.

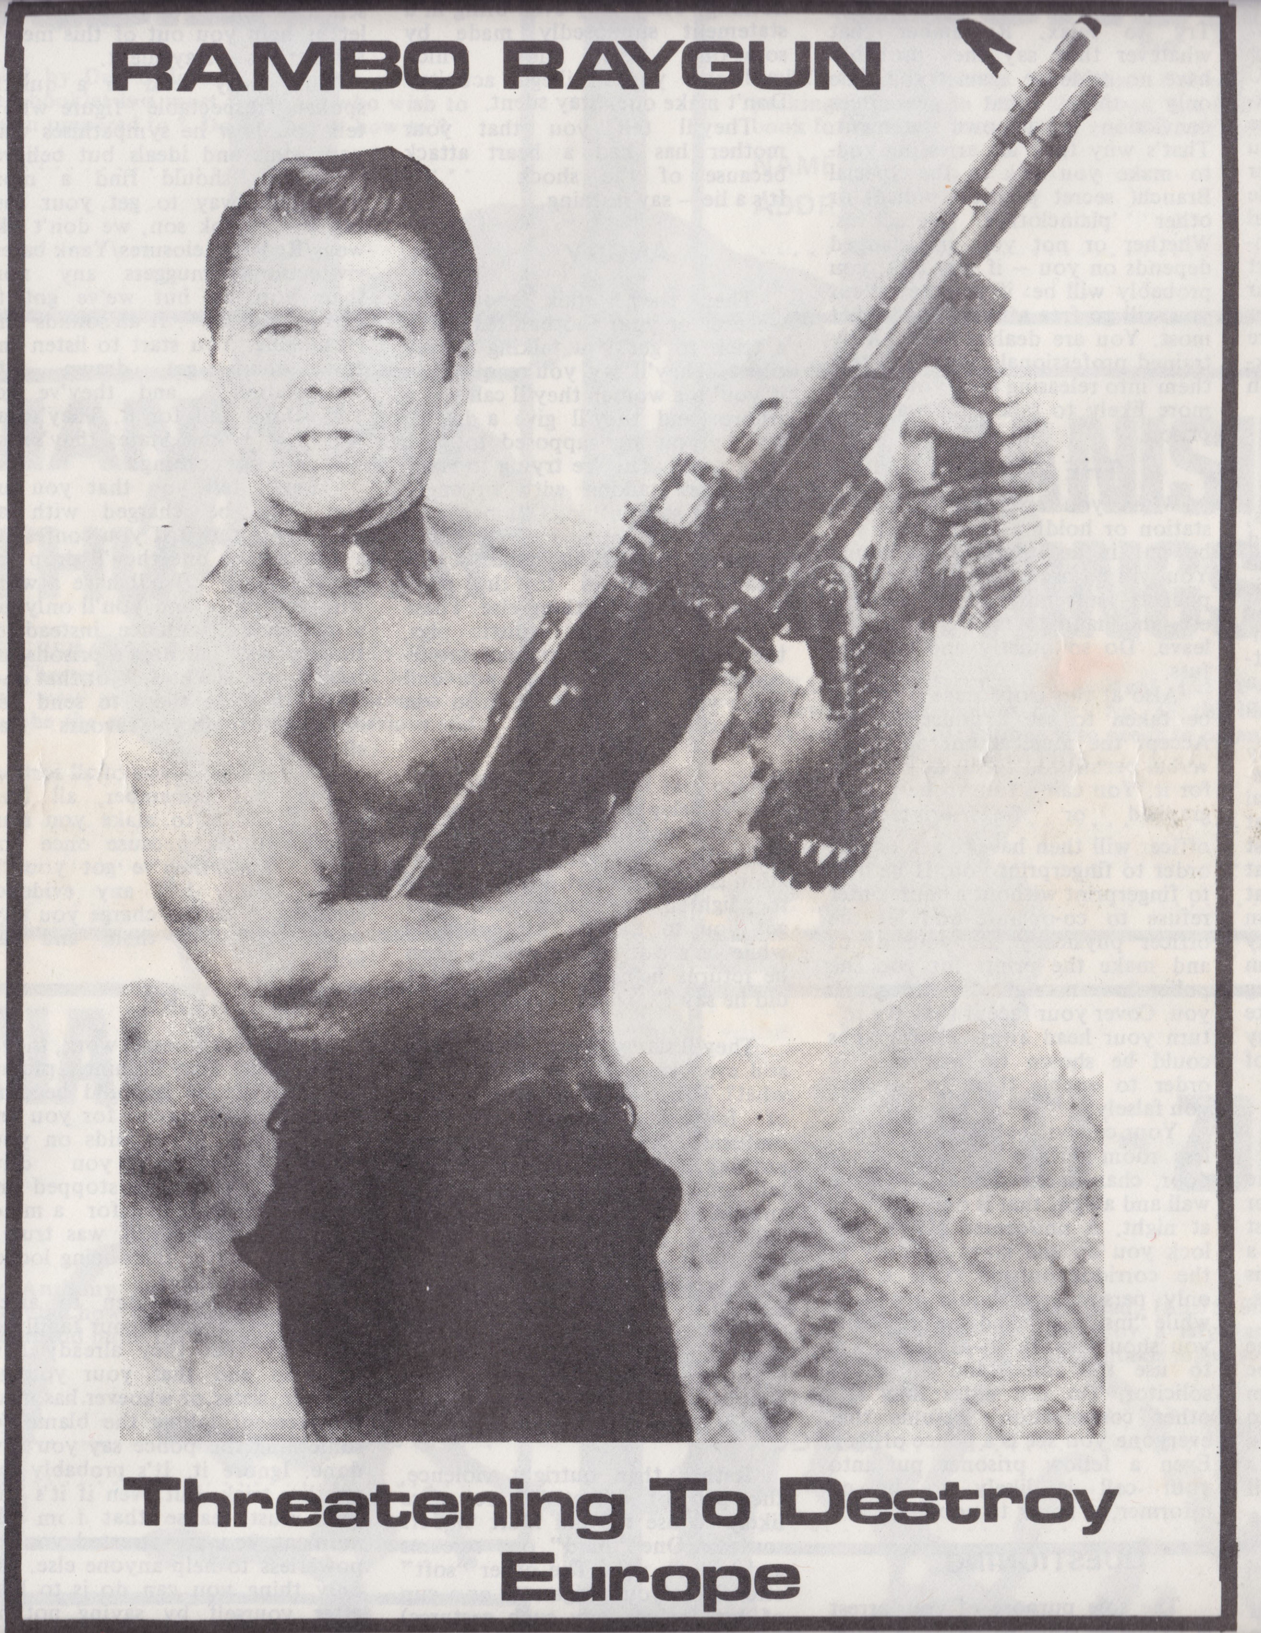
If the two powers of State Centralism, the USA and USSR, decide to fight it out, we will be the people who are horrifically annihilated or left rotting from radiation.

American military leaders have openly stated that if there is a future nuclear war, it would be a limited war fought entirely in Europe.

The British peoples must rise and chase the Yanks out of our nations. If we don't we will have no future. But it is no good throwing out the Yanks and leaving ouselves defenceless. Unfortunately we live in a nuclear age, and if we wish to deter any future aggressor we need an adequate defence for this to be possible. Therefore we believe that we must maintain a small nuclear capacity, but big enough to deter any two potential aggressors. This must be entirely British built and entirely under our control.

Therefore if we wish to control our own national destiny we must also withdraw from NATO, and declare Armed Neutrality. NATO binds us to the US against the USSR, but the USA is no more our friend than the USSR is. We have no quarrel with the American and Russian peoples, but we completely reject the ideologies of their States.



END THE OCCUPATION !

EUROPE AWAKE

THE whole of Europe is split and divided between foreign military forces of occupation. In western Europe we are pinned beneath the sharp claws of the USA, and in the eastern half of Europe our peoples are chained to the USSR. Germany has also been physically divided by the 'Super Powers'.

But the nations and the peoples of Europe do not see these Powers as super! Not only are we subservient to their wishes and demands, and our nations crammed full of their deadly weapons, but we have allowed them to virtually destroy our traditions, cultures and heritage. We have allowed them to implement their bland, soulless and degenerate ideas, values and 'culture' over us. But this shall not be for much longer. The peoples of Europe are slowly but surely awakening from their slumber and will demand their freedom, birthright and nationhood.

We have an ideal worth living and fighting for. The nations of Europe – Proud and Free. A Europe united Spiritually with one purpose. The purpose of controlling our own affairs and Destiny, the purpose of preserving, defending and regenerating our Peoples, Cultures, Traditions and Heritage that sprang from the same root. If we demand Life then we must rise now.

A NON–NUCLEAR FUTURE

Only when Europe is free from foreign domination and spiritually powers of State Centralism, the USA and USSR, decide to fight it out, we will be the people who are horrifically annihilated or left rotting from radiation.

American military leaders have openly stated that if there is a future nuclear war, it would be a limited war fought entirely in Europe.

A NON–NUCLEAR FUTURE

Only when Europe is free from foreign domination and spiritually united will it be possible to rid ourselves of nuclear weapons. When a Europe of the Peoples has been born the nuclear age will leave Europe forever. Together we would be more than a match for any conventional warfare directed against us. Sheer numbers dictate this fact. The forces of Internationalism would not dare to attack us with nuclear weapons as it could only be very limited, because they would end up destroying the rest of the world and themselves with us. A limited nuclear strike against Europe would still leave us with enough people to destroy them if necessary with conventional warfare.

So this is the future that awaits us if we are prepared to fight for it now. A Europe of non–nuclear, non–aggressive strength. A Europe without fear of intimidation from outside. A free National Revolutionary Europe.

JULY 5th
BRITISH INDEPENDENCE DAY

JULY 4th is American Independence Day, a celebration of the day when Americans drove the English Red-Coats from their shores.

The NF have designated July 5th British Independence Day. Each year on the nearest Saturday to the 5th we will hold demonstrations against the Yank occupation in areas where their prescence is strongly felt.

This year a march is being held in Bury St. Edmunds as part of a much larger Day Of Action throughout Suffolk.

ACTION

AT EVERY CRISIS in Ulster's history, the day has always been saved by the united action of ordinary people. Ulster can win this final battle – but only if every member of our community gets involved. We can't afford to leave it to the politicians. We must take action ourselves to defend our heritage and build a decent future for our children.

Ulster's victory will be assured if we work together to build Loyalist power in three areas where it really counts:

*PHYSICAL POWER. It is more important than ever to ensure that our communities are protected from Republican terrorists, from criminals and bigots using legitimate community unrest as a cover for looting and the settling of old scores, and from repression by the forces of 'law and order' (Westminster's law and Thatcher's orders).

So every Loyalist has a duty to join whatever organised force they think is best able to protect their community. Thatcher may pass laws against this, remember: Self-Defence is No Offence!

*ECONOMIC POWER. Every Loyalist worker must get involved in Trade Union affairs and work to return control of the unions to the rank and file membership.

The Ulster Clubs will also play a vital role in the struggle ahead, by forming the basis of an alternative possible, let alone worth living in, if it is built from the beginning as a community benefit nation. Individual enterprise and initiative must be encouraged, but not at the expense of the less fortunate members of our society.

We must seek to heal old class and religious divisions by ending exploitation and building a new future together, based on well-distributed property and social justice for all.

INDEPENDENCE
A FEW QUESTIONS ANSWERED

WHAT DOES INDEPENDENCE MEAN? –Independence for Ulster means Political Independence. Ulster will be run by and for the people of Ulster, from Ulster. Ulster will no longer be subject to the exploitation, the whims and forced deprivation from Westminster. Nor will she be subject to the whims or influence of Dublin.

BUT ISN'T ULSTER A PART OF IRELAND? – No, Ulster is a historic and ancient nation in her own right. She is no more a part of the nation of Ireland than Scotland or Wales are a part of England. It is also untrue that the people of Ulster were English who had been 'planted' by the British Crown to enforce British rule over Ulster. The majority of 'planters' were descended from the initial inhabitants of Ulster who had settled Dalriada, Galloway and many other areas of the mainland centuries before.

IS INDEPENDENCE A NEW IDEA AND IS IT VIABLE? – It is not a new idea and it is viable. In 1974 the Ulster Defence Association (UDA) did extensive studies into the viability of Independence and found that it was viable. Unfortunately Ulster was sold out then, as it always is, by the Fur Coat Brigade – the established 'Politicians' of Ulster. If Ulster is to have any chance at all, the fur coat brigade must go.

In 1974, the UDA's feasibility study was largely based upon economic backing from various sources. The social and economic structure of the National Revolution had not then been developed. Firstly the banking system must be nationalised so that an Ulster Government could control the monetary supply and cancel all usurious national and internal debts caused by our criminal banking system. Money could then be spent into circulation instead of being lent at enormous interest rates. The money in circulation would roughly equal the goods and services in supply and demand, thus eliminating inflation and deflation. This would also enable interest free loans to be made over an agreed period.

Secondly, Society would be based upon small family farms and business, workers Co-Operatives and self-sufficiency.

BUT DOESN'T INDEPENDENCE MEAN THE BREAK UP OF BRITAIN? – We do not believe in a Centralist State as both Capitalism and Communism do. We believe in the de-centralist concept of the British family of nations. In a National Revolutionary Society there would be a British Government made up of representatives of the nations of our family, but this would deal exclusively with foreign affairs, in the interest of the nations of the British Isles. Our society would be based upon the family and as much self-sufficiency and decentralisation of power as possible.

In this sense Independence is a vital step forward to the National Revolution. Our family of nations would of course be inextricably linked by similar culture, traditions, heritage and race. The Spiritual link can never be broken.

*PHYSICAL POWER. It is more important than ever to ensure that our communities are protected from Republican terrorists, from criminals and bigots using legitimate community unrest as a cover for looting and the settling of old scores, and from repression by the forces of 'law and order' (Westminster's law and Thatcher's orders).

So every Loyalist has a duty to join whatever organised force they think is best able to protect their community. Thatcher may pass laws against this, remember: Self-Defence is No Offence!

*ECONOMIC POWER. Every Loyalist worker must get involved in Trade Union affairs and work to return control of the unions to the rank and file membership.

The Ulster Clubs will also play a vital role in the struggle ahead, by forming the basis of an alternative Loyalist welfare state and civil service. If you haven't already joined, do so today.

*POLITICAL POWER. We dare not trust the old political leadership to achieve a satisfactory political solution. We need a hard-line political organisation to articulate the feelings of ordinary Loyalists. The old politicians do not have the guts needed to win this battle.

Only the National Front has the ideological and strategic coherence Ulster needs to put backbone into her political struggle. The NF is working hard to put over Ulster's case on the mainland, but there are still areas in Ulster in which we do not have the manpower to get our message across to everybody. Quite simply, the National Front needs people like you. So don't just buy our papers, get involved. We need more paper sellers, local organisers, volunteers for political training seminars, etc.

The National Front needs YOU to help build the powerful political machine Ulster needs to become Independent – and thus survive as a free Nation, proud of her British heritage and secure in her British future.

*AS PART of the National Front's campaign to promote Loyalist Unity and Loyalist Action, we invite all Loyalist organisations to give NF News details of their struggle for Ulster's freedom. We'll then report them in our Loyalist Unity – Loyalist Action column. Send all reports to : PO Box 40, Belfast, BT 7 1LY.

JOIN OUR STRUGGLE

WE BRITISH NATIONALISTS are struggling against the forces of internationalism, not only for the well-being, but for the very freedom and survival of our people and Nation.

The immediate threat to our existence comes not from without, but is posed by the 'ruling Establishment' itself — of which the Tory, Liberal/SDP Alliance and Labour parties are all part and parcel.

We have an internationalist Establishment because political and economic power is concentrated in the hands of a small clique with sectional, international and/or alien inerests and loyalties.

At the centre of the Establishment lie those who own and control the banking system with its interlocking directorships in multi-national Capitalism.

While the bankers and Big Bosses gain more wealth and power, our working folk are forced to suffer continual economic crises with attendant inflation and unemployment.

Establishment greed has also added to the massive importation of Immigrants in order to undercut the wage bargaining position of British Workers, and break down national barriers which stand in the way of Capitalism.

The vast majority of ordinary British people — dispossessed of everything but their labour which they have to sell to live — have been thrown into direct competition with Immigrants who are willing to work for lower wages, and whose prescence has swelled the labour pool, depressing overall wage levels.

Intermixing

Now racial intermixing threatens the preservation of our distinct national character, with its unique talents and abilities.

The same internationalist interests are behind the sell—out of our fellow Britons in Ulster, and our submersion in the Common Market.

The Communist world, meanwhile, is interlocked with and dependent upon Capitalism.

Far from posing as an alternative, the Communist system is converging towards the same end of a world monopoly of economic and political power.

Communists in Britain act as the servants of Capitalism by supporting the importation of foreign labour, and by attempting to 'drive' British Nationalists from the streets.

We want to preserve our identity, assert our independence, and lay stable foundations fo a worthwhile future — but this can only be done by building a British Nationalist movement dedicated to the overthrow of the ruling Establishment and the utter destruction of its parasitical system.

COMMUNITY ACTION

COMMUNITY ACTION is a new addition to National Front News. Hopefully — and with your support — it will become a regular and major feature of the paper.

Community Action seeks to help the National Front sink local community roots. Indeed, we see this as a very small step on the road to establishing a whole series of Nationalist Advice Centres throughout the UK.

We want to expose local council corruption and incompetence: fight closures of local hospitals, factories and schools, and campaign for decent housing and social services for our people. We also hope to carry advice on what you are entitled to in the way of supplementary benefit, health benefit, housing benefit, etc.

If any NF member or supporter thinks that Community Action should focus on their area, then simply send us your community news plus any local press-cuttings. Members of the public who want us to take up campaigns on their behalf, should use the special coupon; printed below. (Please include a stamped, self-addressed envelope, for administrative purposes).

Your Rights

EVERY YEARS thousands of people buy shoddy goods which fall apart after a couple of months use. As most people are not aware of their consumer rights, they lose out. But by complaining to the seller, you can get the item replaced, repaired - or your money back!

Here's how to make sure that you don't lose out. There are three main shopping rules. They are :-

*Goods must be of Merchantable Quality . This means that they must be reasonably fit for their normal purpose (ie: an umbrella must keep off the rain).

*Goods must be as with the goods you bought, you must stop using them at once. You should then tell the shop what has gone wrong -and take the damaged item(s) back to them. Ask the manager to arrange replacement, repair or your money back for the shoddy goods.

If the manager refuses to help you , don't be put off. Go to your local Citizens Advice Bureau, Environmental Health Department (for health matters such as unfit food and drink, dirty shops and restaurants), or Trading Standards or Consumer Protection Department (for concentrated in the hands of a small clique with sectional, international and/or alien inerests and loyalties.

At the centre of the Establishment lie those who own and control the banking system with its interlocking directorships in multi-national Capitalism.

While the bankers and Big Bosses gain more wealth and power, our working folk are forced to suffer continual economic crises with attendant inflation and unemployment.

Establishment greed has also added to the massive importation of Immigrants in order to undercut the wage bargaining position of British Workers, and break down national barriers which stand in the way of Capitalism.

The vast majority of ordinary British people — dispossessed of everything but their labour which they have to sell to live — have been thrown into direct competition with Immigrants who are willing to work for lower wages, and whose prescence has swelled the labour pool, depressing overall wage levels.

Intermixing

Now racial intermixing threatens the preservation of our distinct national character, with its unique talents and abilities.

The same internationalist interests are behind the sell—out of our fellow Britons in Ulster, and our submersion in the Common Market.

The Communist world, meanwhile, is interlocked with and dependent upon Capitalism.

Far from posing as an alternative, the Communist system is converging towards the same end of a world monopoly of economic and political power.

Communists in Britain act as the servants of Capitalism by supporting the importation of foreign labour, and by attempting to 'drive' British Nationalists from the streets.

We want to preserve our identity, assert our independence, and lay stable foundations fo a worthwhile future — but this can only be done by building a British Nationalist movement dedicated to the overthrow of the ruling Establishment and the utter destruction of its parasitical system.

Boot Out

Only by booting out the self—seeking and corrupt time servers of the Establishment parties and by replacing them with men and women who are truly representative of the British people, will we be able to remove the alien populations.

But it is not enough simply to treat the symptoms of national suicide, without eradicating the disease and preventing its recurrence.

In the society which we will build, the creation of credit will come under State control, and those who work by hand and brain shall have a decisive say in the direction of commerce, so that never again can a monopoly of power fall into the hands of a tiny minority with divergent interests form those of the British people as a whole.

Once freed from the stifling burden of our existing financial system, our wealth and economic power will rapidly expand.

This growth of our economic potential will not be directed into the creation of more concrete jungles, for we want Britain to have a more natural and healthy environment. The long term health and welfare of our people will replace the short-term greed that has up till now caused the pollution of so much of our nation.

The quality of life will also be improved by enlightened town planning. House building and renovation will be encouraged so as to maintain local community spirit, instead of the present practise whereby people are needlessly shoved into soulless tower blocks.

In a British Nationalist society with a stable economic base, people will no longer be

Rape Crisis

THE aim of the Belfast Rape Crisis Centre is to make as many women as possible in Ulster aware that the Centre is open to help them if they are raped, sexually abused or incestually assaulted, no matter when, how, or by whom.

The Belfast Rape Crisis Centre is also a totally non-sectarian group which is committed only to the well-being of women. As such, the group reaches for beyond the religious divide, and gives any woman who contacts them, advice, counselling, support and any information required. They will also accompany any complainant to the police station, solicitor's office, surgery, courts, etc: should the need arise.

The group is all too aware that women are being raped by men they trust in their own communities - and indeed- in their own homes. The Rape Crisis Centre's allegiance is to women and not to any organisation seeking to use them for propaganda purposes. The Centre makes a point of stressing this in any publicity work which they carry out.

Any female readers in Ulster of Community Action who feel they need help in trying to get over sexual abuse can feel free to contact the Belfast Rape Crisis Centre at any time. A 24-hour answering service is available on Belfast (0232) 249696, which is free and confidential.

HAVE you got a gripe about your local council? Is your local factory, hospital or school being closed down? Do you live in bad housing conditions? Then contact Community Action and we'll fight on your behalf. Write to: Community Action, PO Box 41, Norwich, Norfolk, NR3 2AH. “ULSTER MUST SAY ‘YES’ TO SOMETHING” .....Maggie Thatcher

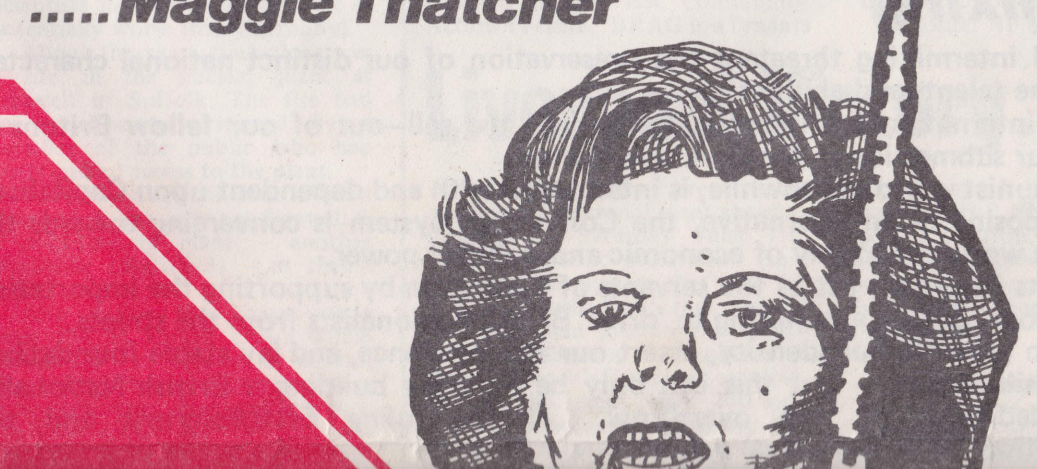
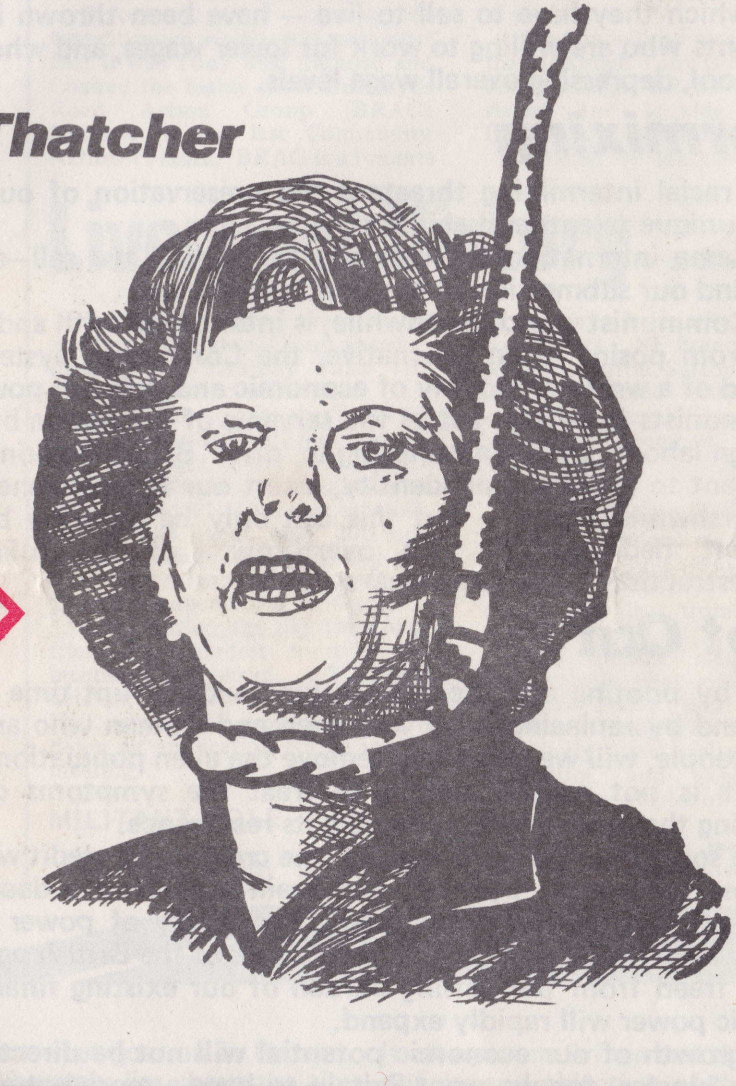
ULSTER SAYS



"ULSTER MUST SAY 'YES' TO SOMETHING"

.....Maggie Thatcher



ULSTER SAYS 'YES!'

HANG MAGGIE THATCHER

SAYS 'YES!'

HANG MAGGIE THATCHER

MAGGIE THATCHER must be one of the most treacherous 'British' Prime Ministers ever. And the Conservative Party must be the most cynical and hypocritical political organisations around, Despite a 'Patriotic' stance, Thatcher and the Tories have always stabbed the British People – and British interests – in the back.

Their record speaks for itself:

It was the Tories who put the final boot in on Rhodesia. The Tories also sold-out Britain's National Sovereignty to the Common Market. The Tories have allowed American military forces to occupy Britain. And the Tories imported cheap immigrant labour to undercut British workers and to undermine the bargaining position of the Trade Unions.

It's not surprising then, that this so-called 'Loyalist and Unionist' has signed the Anglo-Irish Agreement. The sell-out of Ulster just represents one more act of treachery.

But what of the Anglo-Irish Agreement itself? Despite what Thatcher says, the fact remains that a part of Britain has been handed over to a foreign State in a secret sell-out deal. The reality of the deal is that Ulster has been expelled from the United Kingdom. Thatcher has deliberately severed the cherished link with the mainland.

The Loyalist response to this sell-out was swift, dramatic and impressive. In November 1985, over 200,000 staged a massive 'Ulster Says No' rally in Belfast. Hundreds of thousands more said 'Ulster Says No' during the elections of January 1986. And Ulster came to a standstill during the Loyalist one-day strike.

Faced with this, Thatcher – and her lacky Tom King – taunted Loyalists by saying: Ulster cannot go on saying 'No'. The Loyalists must say 'Yes' to something.

For once Thatcher may be right. In a true and sane society any traitor would receive their just reward – and there can be no doubt that Thatcher is a traitor. So Ulster does say 'Yes' to one thing. Ulster says that Thatcher is a traitor. And Ulster says: YES —HANG MAGGIE THATCHER !
